SAIL meeting

Minutes

2/11/2025

The meeting was called the order by Mike G.

Everyone introduced themselves that was an attendance.

Kyle read the January minutes with some corrections that was duly noted due to spelling errors and grammatical. It was moved and seconded and passed by all.

The Jessica report

She reported that Anna and Lisa are consult we're going to talk about officers roles, attendance, etc. and what's been happening

Then we had a guest from the DDA/DHSH staff who was talking about what was happening through the DSHS/DD department one it was about the budget two and three other news. They also took questions and answers.

Then we took a break

Shawn did his report talked about the upcoming advocacy days on the and the rally for March 5 and any other stories or questions that might need to be answered oh and also where is the watch party is gonna be either at the DDC office or the Arc office for this week's attendance, etc.

He also asked if people would love to speak or at a advocacy day suggested that Eric Eric would do something about employment services. I'll take a volunteer to do things with the budget.

Also, it was discussed about travel to Olympia and also video on local and federal budget cuts, then went over the bills of interest. The rapid response team will handle her next meeting next Wednesday, which is tomorrow at 7 PM.

After that due to, I had a meeting I had to leave and it was taking care after that thank you

These notes that I took work from Kyle Matheson for Tracy Turner
